Fort Leavenworth, Kan. (AITE NC)—A rany Lt. Col. Robert K. Moore, whose wife, tryanna, tives at 516 Mbiday Lame, Alexandria, Va., completed the four-month ac sociate conese at The Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., May 4.

The class, which consisted of 374 U.S. Army officers and 28 aillied classmen from 12 countries, was aildressed by Generat Clyde D. Eddheman, vice-chief of staff, U.S. Army, at graduation day exercises.

The college, the Army's senior inctical school, was established in tSSI as the School of Application of Infantry and Cavairy. The associate course was established in 1947 and is designed to prepare selected officers from all components of the Army for duty as commanders and general staff officers. The graduating class included 67 Army Reserve and National Guard officers on temporary active duty, indicative of the Army's effort to train and maintain "One Army".

Colonel Moore was last stationed in Washington, D. C., in the office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army.

The colonel, son of Mrs. Loin K. Arbogast, Huntersville, W. Va., in a 1980 graduate of Mariinton (W. 10 High School.

Why Memorial Day?

When Memorial Day was first observed in 1868, San Juan Hill, Verdum, Dunkerque and Korra still were unfamiliar names to most an another the sands of their own countrymen in defense of "one nation, indivisable".

What was that first Memorial Day like:

Major General John A. Logan had proclaimed the holiday, according to World Book Encyclopedia. The Grand Army of the Republic which he commanded was leading the tributes with services at Arlington National Cometery. Just across the river in Washington, of his impeachment trial four days ago. He had been acquitted, but his enemies, the Radical Republicans, were firmly in control of Reconstruction and determined to punish the South.

The day was probably greeted with mixed feelings by the four million former slaves. Legally they were still not citizens, but Congress, after celebrating the holiday, would go back to work on passing the Fourteenth Amendment to make them so. The Negroes were trying to adjust to their new freedom, with little help from the newly organized Ku-Klux Klan.

The old Southern aristocracy, too, had to make adjustments. Its land had been rulned, its economy was near collapse and its social traditions had been overturned.

The pleture was more cheerful in the North, where Harrlet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin", was now writing stories about New England life. While the war had shattered the South, it had brought booming prosperity to the North. Men who finduced the Union cause and manufactured its weapons and supplies been a willionaires and, at the same time, speeded up the process of industrialization.

There were still echoes of war on that solemn day. While graves were being decorate with flowers, Irish republicans in the United States were plottles, so the ter Canada and hold it as hostage for the freedom of Ireland. Cubaus were just beginning a ten year rebellion against the Spanish that would soon win the official sympathy of the U.S. House of Representatives.

that most Americans had put thoughts of war behind them. They were looking westward to the Great Plalus and to the "manifest destiny" of the nation. Miners had started the surge west. Now the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific railways were nearing their meeting at Promontory Point, Utnh, which would mark the completion of the first transcontinental railway. The railroads would hring in settiers and equipment. They would earry back to Eastern markets the herds that Texas cattlemen were beginning to drive north. Farmers would follow the cowboys, respectable towns would replace the rowdy camps Bret Harle was immortalizing in such stories as "The Luck or Roaring Camp", and the frontier would disappear.

The slage was set for the emergence of the Union comented by the dead who were being memorialized on that May 30th, as an industrial glant that would spread its bounty across a continent.

JOURNAL GOES FOR UNDERWOOD

Although the headline sounds like a political plug, it isn't. The Underwood referred to is the fine line of office machines manufactured by the Underwood-Olivetti combine. The Journal has just received the typewriters, adding machines and calculators shown above and now has them on display. Any Pocahontas County business firm interested in a new office machine can arrange to have one installed on a tree trial basis by calling the Journal office. -Journal Photo is a project of the Marilaton Ror tary Club, expenses are partially underwritten by tocahentas County business places. The Marilaton booth has proved a boon to the traveling public and also is widely used by local realdents.

Not only does this information center have the distinction of her ing the first such project in the state, it has served as an incentive for other communities to do likewise. Committees from a number of towns have visited Marlinton to harn how the booth is run.

Through the generosity and public spirit of the First National Bank the booth occupies a choice spot on Main street where it is readily accessible to travelers, of whom hundreds used its services last year. Touri is from nost of the United States as well as several foreign countries were callers.

Teams of Rotarians will be calling on all besiness and professional people during the next 10 days for help in underwriting the booth budget for the coming season. Names of contributors will be listed in this newspaper and posted at the booth so everyone will know who they are.

Smokey Johnson Shows Back Of Head To Pack

The kart racing season got off to a flying start last Sunday at the Pocahoutus Fair Grounds.

Percy Moses, the erstwhile "Lone Ranger" wound his kart up tight to take the honors in the time trials at a speed of 24 seconds flat.

The first heat race was won by Rob Smith of Etkins, driving a kart powered by two 580 West Bend engines.

In the second heat race Dorsey Moses started in the pole position and was never headed.

The 10-lap Powderpuff race was won by Ruby Moses after Sis and Jaac Kay Michael were forced out by mechanical trouble.

In the 15-lap Anstralian Pursult Race "Smokey" Johnson-drove Johnny Nelsons kart powered by two McCullough engines. Starting in front because of the kart's slow qualifylag time. Smokey poured it on and steadily widened the gap. Dorsey Moses, who started—in-fifth position,—finished second followed by Harlan Grimes Jodey Moses and Percy Moses.

The feature 15-lap race saw fill Ciendenia in Percy Moses' kart on the pole. However, Jodey Moses soon took the lead and held it for the first four laps when Smokey Johnson again took over after coming from last place. Jodey had been forced to the pits with a broken chain, in a ding-dong race filly Clembenh beat out Harlan Grimes for second while Dorsey Moses look fourth place.

Roger Irvine Wounded

While Checking Traps Roger trying, 17, son of Mrs. Opal Cochran, was wounded lo the left shoulder at about 4:15 Monday evening while cheeking trups adjacent to the gulf course on Beard Heights. According to reports the young man had leaned his .22 calibre rifle against a fence and was ethibling through when the gini fell and was discharged, sending a .22 hollow paint sing into his left shoulder blade. Although losing quite a bit of blood the youth made his way toward Raymond Shrader's residence where he was met on No. 1 green by Mrs. Shrader, Mrs. Libby Rexrode and Mrs. Margaret Barlow, The ladies called the emergency ambulance which responded quickly, manned by Ed Stemple and Wayne Ware,

The bijured lad was brought to the Pocahontas Memorial Hospital where he was given an emergency blood transfusion and the bullet, which lodged under the skin after shattering the shouled blade, 'was removed by Dr. Robert Pittman.

A report on Wednesday afternoon said young Irvine was able to sit up but was still suffering from recurring fever.

The machine caught the ramples and drew McNeel's right arm glove and drew McNeel's right arm glove and the machine. Despite frantle sie the machine, bespite frantle was unable to extricate him.

The injured man's screams for help were heard by his wife in the house and she came running, in the meantime a chain had broken and stopped the machine but McNeel still couldn't get loose, His wife, with rure presence of mind and dexterity, found tools and took the machine apart to free her husband. She then put him in the family car and brought him to Pocahonias Memorial Hos.

Upon examination it was found that McNeels hand was mangled beyond saving and had to be amputated above the wrlst. At this writing the patient was reported to getting along as well as could be expected.

EXTENSION WORKERS CONFERENCEE NEXT WEEK

Workers of the Cooperative Extension Service, West Virginia Paircraity from throughout the state will assemble at the State ill Camp at Jackson's Mill next week for their annual conference, This is the third calamity to befall the McNeel family in the past several weeks. First, the son fell off a roof and suffered a severe fracture of the pelvis, the was back on his feet when Mrs. Moffelt McNeel, Sr., fell and broke a leg. She is still convalescing.

Tales Of Pocahontas Now Ready meeting.

Friends of Prof. G. D. McNeill and those interested in "Tales of Pocahontas County" will be glad to know that the booklets of that name are now completed and ready for distribution. Many have been mailed out to those having previously reserved and paid for copies, and they should have them by the time this paper is in the mads. If there is anyone who has paid for a reserved copy who has not received it, please notify the Journal office at once.

At this time the only place these books are available is the Marlinton Journal Office. Since the supply is limited and many will want to use them as Christmas presents, it is advisable that anyone desiring copies obtain them at once. The price is $1.50 or $1.75 by mail. If addresses are furnished, the Journal will be glad to mail copies anywhere in the United States at $1.75 each which includes the postage.
